

INSTRUCTIONS FOR NOMINATING YOUR FCCLA ADVISOR FOR THE Excellence in Advising Award

What makes a good FCCLA advisor? Good chapter advisors work hard to see that their students receive many benefits of membership, and that the experience is a positive one. These advisors are the ones that stay late with students; give up personal or family time to go to meetings and activities; help with STAR Events; or just listen to their chapter members concerns. To many members, these advisors may seem like a part of their extended family.

The advisors that go “above and beyond” for their FCCLA members deserve additional recognition. All advisors nominated will receive a letter of acknowledgment, and those selected as award winners will be recognized in the Missouri News in Family and Consumer Sciences Education and during the annual State Leadership Conference. A selection committee appointed by the State Executive Council will determine the number of award recipients.

AWARD CRITERIA

- ☞ The nomination may be made by a local FCCLA chapter president, officer, or member.
- ☞ All nominations must be postmarked by January 15.
- ☞ Information included in the nomination materials must reflect activities for the current school year. The award is not based on years of advising, but on the positive impact of the advisor on the local chapter for the current school year. Both new and experienced advisors are eligible to be nominated.
- ☞ All nominees must be current FCCLA advisors and family and consumer sciences teachers.
- ☞ The following must be submitted for consideration: printed or typed completed nomination form and two letters of recommendation. Letters can be from a school administrator, community member, chapter parent, or from another teacher.

Mail the nomination form and the letters of recommendation, postmarked by January 15 to:
